St. Croix Property Enforcement Policies and Procedures

The following procedure will apply to all violations and infractions of the governing documents and the rules and regulations.

1. Owners may report violations to the association manager.
2. The board of directors, the manager, or committee appointed by the board of directors may also note any violations discovered during a walkthrough or by personal knowledge of any of its members.

at the time a violation is noted or reported, action will be taken as follows:

1. A written violation notice to correct the violation will be sent by the association manager to the owner's address on file and to the tenant if applicable. If the owner has consented to receive official notices by e-mail, the violation notice may be sent by e-mail. The notice will contain a description of the violation, and instructions regarding corrective action that is needed and a date to cure.
2. Unless otherwise stated in the fining schedule, if the violation is not cured within the allotted time or if the violation recurs, the owner (and tenant if applicable) will receive a final notice.
3. If the violation remains not cured, recurs, or if the owner's response is otherwise not favorable the matter will go before the board for a decision on enforcement. The board shall use the fining schedule as a guide when considering the amount of fine.
4. A fine or suspension levied by the board of administration may not be imposed unless the board first provides at least 14 days' written notice to the unit owner and, if applicable, any tenant, licensee, or invitee of the unit owner sought to be fined or suspended, and an opportunity for a hearing before a committee of at least three members appointed by the board who are not officers, directors, or employees of the association, or the spouse, parent, child, brother, or sister of an officer, director, or employee. The role of the committee is limited to determining whether to confirm or reject the fine or suspension levied by the board. If the committee does not approve the proposed fine or suspension by majority vote, the fine or suspension may not be imposed. If the proposed fine or suspension is approved by the committee, the fine payment is due 5 days after notice of the approved fine is provided to the unit owner and, if applicable, to any tenant, licensee, or invitee of the unit owner. The association must provide written notice of such fine or suspension by mail or hand delivery to the unit owner and, if applicable, to any tenant, licensee, or invitee of the unit owner.
5. No fine shall exceed $1000 in the aggregate.
6. All monies received from fines shall become part of the common surplus.
7. Fines shall not be construed to be an exclusive remedy and shall exist in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the association may otherwise be legally entitled.
